

The CHURCH TIMES

Festival of Faith & Literature

A literary festival with a theological slant

FREE Children's Activities

16 – 18 February 2018

This year's festival features some FREE activities for children aged 5+. All three are free to attend, but please book online to save your space:

Pilgrims on the road to a new Jerusalem: Puppet-craft workshop

Saturday 17 February, 11:15am-12:30pm

Find out more about pilgrimage and make your own pilgrim puppet, with Jackie Holderness, Education Officer at Christ Church Cathedral and Diana Thompson, St Mary's Bloxham Church Club Coordinator. For ages 5+

Discover your Destiny: Fantasy Worlds, Characters and Quests

Saturday 17 February, 2:15pm-3:30pm

A game, a quiz, a chance to explore what makes up a fantasy story, and have a go yourself, with Philip S Davies, author of Destiny's Rebel and Destiny's Revenge. For ages 8+

Building a City for God: Paper-craft workshop

Sunday 18th February, 2:15pm-3:30pm

Make paper/card/pop-up models of buildings in Jerusalem, with Jackie Holderness, Education Officer at Christ Church Cathedral, and Diana Thompson, St Mary's Bloxham Church Club Coordinator. In St Mary's Parish Rooms. For ages 5+

at Bloxham School and St Mary's Church

For more information and tickets visit www.bloxhamfaithandliterature.co.uk or phone 0845 017 6965 (lines open Monday–Friday 9am–5pm)

